Course details

This 15-hour online course offers teacher support over 3 weeks/ 4 weekends that encourages teachers to prepare candidates for the Reading and Writing module of Trinity College London's Integrated Skills in English at Foundation and ISE I levels.

The main aims are:

- To familiarise participants with the format of the reading and writing components
- To encourage participants to reflect on the skills students need to develop to do well in this module
- To provide teaching ideas and practical tips for preparing students
- To help participants to develop and share their own teaching ideas

This course includes:

- Challenging and inspiring resources
- Tasks to encourage a reflective approach
- Activity-based learning where participants also create classroom resources
- Discussion forums for participants to share their views and learn from colleagues.

Enrolment

To apply for a place on this course you must be highly motivated and ideally have at least C1 CEFR level. To enrol, you should either login or create an account at: www.excellenceineducation.eu.

Please select the course and follow the on-screen instructions.

Please note: you may only participate in one course per 'stage'. If you do request more than one course, you must state your first choice on the application form in the first box that says 'Comment' to avoid being placed on a course of your second choice.

Important: You will be sent confirmation the day before the course starts, so please be patient. Numbers are limited to 40 participants, so please do not request a place if you think you may not have enough time
