Your Guide to getting started with Trinity Drama
Exams in 3 easy steps

#TrinityDrama

Help your students
develop vital 21st century skills to enable them to thrive
in the modern world.

With Trinity Drama exams, students gain confidence, develop creativity and improve performance and presentation skills. Running a Drama department is incredibly busy with a continuing roll of productions, theatre visits and visiting companies. Trinity can support you with your Drama offering and help you get set up in 3 easy steps.

CHOOSE AN EXAM

THEIR VOICE

We offer exams in Speech and Drama, Acting, Musical Theatre, Performance Arts and Communication Skills, with free choice of repertoire in each, allowing your students to focus on their interests and perform to their strengths.

THEIR CHOICE

Exams can be taken as a solo performer, as a pair or as a group. There are also whole production exams which recognise and reward the achievements of the whole cast and the crew working behind the scenes.

THEIR EXAM

Our flexible exams offer something for everyone, regardless of age or experience. Choose from Initial to Grade 8 and beyond with our Diploma offer. Grades 6 and above carry UCAS points.

PLAY TO THEIR STRENGTHS

With Trinity Drama exams students and teachers are free to choose the texts they want to use, allowing students to develop their interests and perform to their strengths, whilst giving them the opportunity to engage with a wide range of material, styles and genres. We put the student at the heart of our exams.

DEDICATED SUPPORT

Our Anthology Online is one of a number of ways in which we support teachers and students to progress successfully through our exams. You can also call our Support Team on 020 7820 6100 or DanceDramaSpeech@trinitycollege.co.uk

EXAMINATION CENTRES

You can enter students at one of our public centre (see here) or become a registered (private) Trinity Drama Centre. Being a private centre means you have the flexibility to hold your exams when you want.

There is no cost involved in becoming an exam centre and there is plenty of support to help you through this process.
